The Celebration of Worship at Faith Community Lutheran
THANKSGIVING EVE WORSHIP

Before worship, talk to God. During worship, let God talk to you.
After worship, talk to your fellow worshiper.

*Here at Faith Community Lutheran...*we almost always follow the traditional order of worship familiar to most Lutherans, but usually our services are a "blend" of old and new music. As Lutherans, we view ourselves as a church of "Word & Sacrament." Therefore, "God's Word" is held in high esteem as we follow the Scripture readings and the sermon with our Bibles open.

FCLC is among a growing number of Lutheran Churches committed to celebrating the Sacrament of Holy Communion every week, including the baptized of all ages. As we begin our Communion, all are invited to "examine themselves" (1 Cor.11:28) during the Confession as we prepare to receive the Body and Blood of Christ. Children of all ages may receive the sacrament! However, if parents prefer, small children may receive a grape given with the words, "Welcome to the Lord's Table."

The joyful, child-like clowns used in the church represent Jesus' love for us. The white makeup on the clown's face represents Jesus' death. And the bright colors added to the face represent Christ's resurrection. The clown is a reminder of what Jesus said in Matthew 18:4 "whoever humbles himself like this child is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven."

THANKSGIVING
EVE WORSHIP
November 24, 2010

Thanksgiving for many people is just a time for food, football, and some extra days off from work. For others it is a little more than that and also a time to get together with family and friends. And still yet for others, it may seem very hard to feel thankful for anything, as some people are in the midst of loss of jobs, loss of loved ones, divorce, etc.

As Christians and believers we need to remember and keep the faith. Jesus said, "I am the bread of life. Whoever comes to me will never go hungry, and whoever believes in me will never be thirsty." (John 6:35)

Wherever you are in your life, and whatever you may be going through, remember Jesus' promise. He is and will always be with you, through the good times, and through times of trial.

On this Thanksgiving, remember that God the Father loved you so much that He gave His only Son to die for you. We hear that a lot in worship services, reciting creeds, and sermons, but truly think about what that really means. God sacrificed Jesus for you, because He loves you that much. Now that is something to be truly thankful for.

A CONGREGATIONAL MEETING will be held on Sunday, December 5 at 12:15PM. This meeting will be for the purpose of both discussing the 2011 budget which will be called to a vote at the January annual meeting and facilitating a discussion and vote regarding proposed changes to the FCLC Constitution. Please plan to participate as we need your inputs and we also must have a quorum of the congregational votes in attendance. Refreshments will be served.

Do you have a heart for the homeless in our community? Here's how you can help!! Faith Community makes sack lunches for the HOPE outreach program here in Longmont on the 3rd Sunday of each month, and our very own Outreach committee picks up the tab! All you have to do is shop for the groceries, make 20 sack lunches, and deliver the lunches to the HOPE warehouse. You can sign up to help once or twice per year, and you would be making a big difference in the lives of our homeless brothers and sisters. If you are interested in helping out, please email LaRae at laraeschaff@yahoo.com, or call her at 303-772-8385.

You're invited to the Sunday School Missions-We-Know Open House!

Sunday, December 12, 9:30-10:30 am

FCLC kids sure do have a heart for mission! Preschool through 5th graders, remember to bring Mom or Dad downstairs with you to Sunday School on December 12! Help them learn more about the Bible stories and mission projects we have discovered this Fall. Get a sneak peek at the exciting things coming up in January!

Weavers of the Cloth

Craft Sale
Sunday, November 28, 9 am to 12:30 pm

Please join us in the Fellowship Hall. Weavers of the Cloth meet once a month throughout the year for devotion, fellowship and to work on crafts. Today they have a wonderful display of hand-crafted items. Step in and you might find a lovely Christmas gift, birthday gift, or baby shower gift. Purchase inexpensive hand-crafted gifts for every member of your family! Proceeds will fund a Weavers of the Cloth selected outreach project.

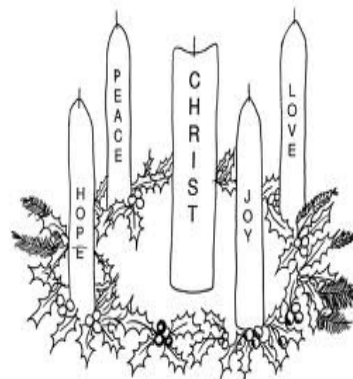

Join Christine Hollenbeck, Hope Rothe and Annie Mount in decorating for Christ's Birth—Christmas on Saturday,

313, 431, 131

313 dollars raised by the Sunday School classes to purchase mosquito nets for children in Third World countries who are affected by malaria. Almost 120 children can now sleep at night, without the fear of contracting malaria.

431 books collected for the 6th grade Confirmation class book drive in November. Thank you all for helping the cause! 6th graders provided 70 book bags, each with 6 books to children at The Wild Plum Center (HeadStart) at their literacy night. These were some of the first books some of these preschoolers had ever owned!

131 Operation Christmas Child shoeboxes gathered from members of FCLC! Yay, for your amazing support!

If you desire personal prayer support, Stephen Ministers are available to pray with people after each service. Contact the Welcome Center or contact Karla Irvin 303-485-5779.
